

KENTUCKY IRISH AMERICAN.

VOLUME XIII.—NO. 20.

LOUISVILLE, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1904.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

Y. M. I.

Mackin Council Ready to Welcome Public in the New Club House.

Success of Bazar and Reception to Supreme President W. M. Fogarty Assured.

Joint Meeting of All Councils Tuesday Night at Trinity Hall.

NOTICE FROM SUPREME SECRETARY

The Ways and Means Committee of Mackin Council are putting the finishing touches on the new $10,000 club house on Twenty-sixth street, which will be thrown open to the public next Thursday night with a bazar and reception to the Supreme President of the Young Men's Institute, William M. Fogarty, City Clerk of Indianapolis. Mackin's new home is indeed a beauty and is worthy the Catholic young men of the West End, who are about to realize the fruition of years of earnest labor. Mayor Charles F. Granger, Judge Matt O'Doherty and Hon. Edward J. McDermott have been invited to attend the opening exercises and deliver short addresses. Unity Council, of New Albany, and Satoli and Trinity Councils, of this city, will visit the affair in a body, and the largest gathering ever witnessed in the West End may be looked for. There are eight committees working for the bazar, and judged from the reports received Tuesday night its success is already assured.

At the meeting of Trinity Council on Monday night it was announced that the joint meeting of the Louisville councils in honor of the Supreme President would be held next Tuesday night at Trinity's Hall on East Gray street. Trinity has prepared a rousing reception for the visitors. This meeting will be under the supervision of the Joint Committee, who hope to see the large hall crowded to the doors. The members are also said to be arranging for a big turn-out for the visit to Mackin Council.

Satoli Council will honor the visiting Supreme President with a banquet on Wednesday and will show him the principal points of interest in Louisville and its suburbs. There was much enthusiasm manifested at the meeting held Monday night, and it was said that every member would be at Mackin's bazar.

There was a large gathering Tuesday night at St. Cecilia's Hall to hear reports and work for Mackin Council's welfare. President Shelley was in Cincinnati and the chair was occupied by Fred Herp. Leonard Wessel and Martin Robinson were elected members and applications received from R. L. Fisher and John Nolan. The reports of all the committees were very satisfactory concerning the opening and bazar next week. It was voted to hold the regular meeting on Monday night, and on Tuesday evening all will assemble at the hall and proceed in a body to the joint meeting at Trinity Hall.

The Kentucky Irish American has received the following communication and request from Supreme Secretary O'Brien: I am in receipt of the following official order No. 1 from our worthy Supreme President, also with the instructions that I communicate same to you at once and request that you have the several councils in your jurisdiction put same in force as early as you possibly can:

As the Supreme President of the Young Men's Institute I herewith communicate to you the request that, in token of our esteem for the beloved memory of the late lamented Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, who until the fifth Supreme Council of the institute had been our Supreme Chaplain for four years, you wear in the lapel of your coats a small purple ribbon for the period of thirty days, or until the third day of December, 1904.

To All Officers and Members of the Young Men's Institute—Fraternal Greetings: Herewith you will find the name and address of all of the Supreme officers elected at the last Supreme Council held at Colorado Springs, Colo., October 10, 11 and 12, 1904:

Chaplain—Most Rev. D. D. O'Donoghue, Indianapolis.

President—William M. Fogarty, City Clerk, Indianapolis.

First Vice-President—Samuel Haskins, Custom House, San Francisco.

Second Vice-President—J. Emmet Sullivan, Jermyn, Pa.

Sonetary—James M. O'Brien, Box 374, Rosnoke, Va.

Treasurer—D. J. Cullinan, 262 Main Street, Pittsburgh.

Board of Supreme Directors—P. H. Keefe, Chairman, Sharpsburg, Pa.; William M. Fogarty, Indianapolis; L. E. Mahn, Eureka, Cal.; P. J. Stanton, Frostburg, Md.; John J. Barry, New Haven, Ky.; William H. Weber, Walla Walla, Wash.; John W. Whelan, 510 Charleston street, Mobile, Ala.

I am instructed by the Supreme Council to prepare a national directory of the Y. M. I., showing the name of the council, its number, where located in the city, the names and addresses of their President, Secretary and Treasurer. This directory will be published in vest pocket size, and will be a great benefit to all brothers traveling; and in order to make it complete and of service I will have the same issued immediately after the beginning of the year, or as soon as the names of the new officers are furnished me by the several councils. I therefore ask that all councils be as prompt as possible in sending me the information herein outlined. I will send the proper blanks during the month of December. Fraternally yours,

JAMES M. O'BRIEN,
Supreme Secretary.

SACRED HEART CHURCH

Will Be Consecrated by Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey in December.

Last Sunday at all the masses in the Sacred Heart church the pastor, Rev. Patrick Walsh, made the welcome announcement that that beautiful church edifice would be consecrated by the Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey during the month of December. Father Walsh and his flock have labored hard to free their church from debt, and consequently there is great rejoicing over the fact that it will be consecrated during the present jubilee year. As the arrangements are completed they will be made known in these columns.

In preparation for the joyful occasion a mission will be held at the Sacred Heart church the last week of this month, when all the parishioners are expected to approach the holy sacrament in thanksgiving for the many blessings that have been bestowed on them. The mission will be conducted by priests noted for both their eloquence and learning.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

Kentucky's State President Made Member of National Organization.

Dr. Francis S. Clark, State President of the Kentucky Federation of Catholic Societies, this week received a letter from Secretary Anthony Matre informing him that he had been made a member of the national organization. Dr. Clark was recommended for the honor by the highest authorities and has accepted the position. In the near future President Clark will visit all local clergy for the purpose of interesting them and their parishes in the federation movement.

Upon the announcement of the death of Archbishop Elder the officers of the State and County Federation met in this city and adopted appropriate resolutions, which were forwarded to Archbishop Henry Moeller, who made the following acknowledgement:

"The resolutions adopted by the Kentucky Federation of Catholic Societies were received. I thank you, the committee and the members of the Federation for the expression of esteem and sympathy contained therein. May God bless you."

Thursday night the regular monthly meeting of the Jefferson Federation was held at Hibernian Hall. Encouraging reports were read by Secretary Conney and a number of societies gave notice that they would soon be represented.

LOVELY LIFE CLOSED.

The entire Catholic community was thrown into deepest grief Friday night of last week by the announcement of the death of Mrs. Catherine E. Byrne, beloved wife of John P. Byrne, at the family residence, 914 West Chestnut street, after a very short illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Byrne was one of those pioneers of the faith whose edifying lives and supernatural virtues make them shine as stars, no matter where their lot in life may be cast. She was a native of that holy island from whose bosom have gone forth so many generations of saintly sons and virtuous daughters, whose lives were modeled upon the holy faith which St. Patrick implanted in the hearts of the primitive people of Ireland. Born there sixty-eight years ago, she arrived in the United States when but a girl, and locating in Louisville she afterward married John P. Byrne, who with two daughters, Mrs. B. J. Jansen and Mrs. J. H. Buschmeyer, survive her. Our Heavenly Father has promised a long life and a happy death to those who serve him faithfully in this life, and the deceased was the recipient of both these rewards from Him who has given His beloved rest, as she loved her faith dearly and practiced it with the fidelity of a soul sanctified. The funeral took place Monday morning from the Cathedral and was one of the largest seen there for years.

ACTIVE DEBT PAVERS.

On Monday evening the St. Louis Bertrand Debt Paying Association had a very interesting meeting. President Cassidy presided. Rev. Father Volz, who was present, thanked the gentlemen for the active work done in this regard and spoke words of encouragement for the future. Methods of reaching new contributors, as well as of again interesting old contributors, were discussed. The reports were well up to the standard. Some of the collectors had to complain of the actions of a few, who constantly put the collectors off with some trivial excuse, thinking nothing of the trouble they put these gentlemen to nor of the endless confusion they cause in the records of the society by such dilatory tactics. If some of these parties could see themselves as others see them they would soon mend their ways.

TRIBUTE

Paid Late Most Rev. William Henry Elder, Archbishop of Cincinnati.

His Funeral Was the Most Impressive Ever Held in This Country.

The Cardinal, Archbishops and Hundreds of Bishops and Priests Present.

RT. REV. BISHOP McCLOSKEY ASSISTED

The funeral of the most Rev. William Henry Elder, Archbishop of Cincinnati, which took place from St. Peter's Cathedral in the city named on Tuesday, was the most impressive ceremony ever held in the State of Ohio or probably in America. From all parts of the United States were assembled the leading dignitaries of the church, both young and old. The Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, William George McCloskey, D. D., was present, and assisted in the solemn mass of requiem. Since the death of the venerable Archbishop, Dr. McCloskey is the oldest Bishop in the United States. Cardinal Gibbons and all the Archbishops were in attendance.

The scene at the Cathedral was impressive beyond description. Long before the hour fixed for the solemn services to begin thousands of people filled the streets surrounding the Cathedral. They came from all parts of Ohio and from Kentucky as well as from Cincinnati. When the doors of the great Cathedral were opened those who had cards were admitted and this immense auditorium was at once filled. Thousands were unable to gain admission, but waited patiently outside, and when the mass was over followed the remains to the cemetery.

The scene in the sanctuary was the most impressive sight of all. All of the clergy wore black vestments except Cardinal Gibbons. There were fully 500 Bishops and priests in the sanctuary and at the altar railing. The high mass of requiem was sung by Archbishop Moeller, the successor of Archbishop Elder. He was assisted by the Very Rev. Dr. Schoenhof, V. G., the Rev. August Quatman and Rev. William Hickey. At the conclusion of the mass the Most Rev. John J. Keane, Archbishop of Dubuque, preached the funeral sermon. Archbishop Keane is one of the finest orators among the Catholic dignitaries of America. His tribute to the venerable Archbishop was a classic. He spoke for an hour. We regret that space forbids the publication of this great funeral sermon.

Following the sermon there were five solemn absolutions given by Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ryan, Bishops Maes, Heslin and Allen, each attended by two chaplains. All the Catholic church bells in Cincinnati toll while the funeral procession moved from the Cathedral to the cemetery. The funeral cortege was several miles long, and it was one of the most distinguished men in Ohio as well as many of the humblest laborers in Cincinnati. Never before in Cincinnati was there such a tribute paid to a citizen as was paid to the dead Archbishop. All classes turned out, even though it was election day.

At the grave the final services were conducted by Archbishop Moeller, assisted by Fathers Nau and Dutton. Rev. Father Ackerman, Mrs. Phil Ackerman, Sr., Mrs. Thomas Cody and Miss Mamie Ackerman were among the number obsequies in the Cathedral. They said it would be impossible to give even a faint idea of the solemnity of the services or the respect and sorrow everywhere manifest for the deceased Archbishop.

All the Catholic church bells in Cincinnati toll while the funeral procession moved from the Cathedral to the cemetery. The funeral cortege was several miles long, and it was one of the most distinguished men in Ohio as well as many of the humblest laborers in Cincinnati. Never before in Cincinnati was there such a tribute paid to a citizen as was paid to the dead Archbishop. All classes turned out, even though it was election day.

At the grave the final services were conducted by Archbishop Moeller, assisted by Fathers Nau and Dutton. Rev. Father Ackerman, Mrs. Phil Ackerman, Sr., Mrs. Thomas Cody and Miss Mamie Ackerman were among the number obsequies in the Cathedral. They said it would be impossible to give even a faint idea of the solemnity of the services or the respect and sorrow everywhere manifest for the deceased Archbishop.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES

Celebrate Fourteenth Anniversary and Outline Future Work.

There was a large and happy gathering Wednesday night at Marker's Hall to celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of Branch 2 of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America. And to the officers and members it was especially gratifying to see so many visitors and well wishers present, nearly every branch in Louisville being represented. President Patrick Holley presided and expressed himself highly pleased to welcome so many ladies and gentlemen. In a few well chosen words he reviewed the history of Branch 2 during the fourteen years of its existence. There were now about 400 members, who would be surprised did they realize what had been accomplished by them since the beginning of their organization. Its great success, President Holley said, must be attributed to their good members, the women, who have built this and all other branches, and without whose co-operation the Catholic Knights and Ladies could have done nothing. Every Catholic man and woman, he declared, should be insured, and it was the duty of members to maintain the benefits of membership in this grand order, which had issued only one extra assessment in the entire fourteen years. He then read a communication from Supreme President Kelly, who suggested the formation of a central advisory board in Louisville. President Kelly appealed to the women, who could advertise the order and bring the membership up to 5,000 in this city. The suggestions met with hearty approval, and before the adjournment arrangements were made for a meeting next Wednesday night at the office of Attorney Newton G. Rogers, when the board will be organized.

Miss Mary Sheridan reported two applications and three candidates awaiting initiation. Reports coming to her showed new branches being instituted and the membership increasing everywhere, especially in the West. She well remembered when she could stand at St. Patrick's church and call all the members together. Now they were away up in the thousands and were scattered over fourteen States of the Union. She urged the formation of an advisory board that Louisville and Kentucky may continue in the lead.

Newton G. Rogers pointed to the monuments of Catholic fraternity and charity reared by the C. K. and L. of A. After some good advice and a practical business talk he congratulated the branch on its success. Dr. Peter Ganz was indeed glad to see the backbone and spirit exhibited by Supreme President Kelly and the active interest he is arousing to increase the membership. Dr. Ganz asked each individual to bring in one new member during the year. Members should better inform themselves about their order by holding quarterly general meetings and preparing themselves to become its agents. Miss Rena Weisenberg aroused much enthusiasm and offered her services. Advisory boards in other cities, she said, were doing splendid work, and the same would result here if properly organized. Messrs. Thomas Keenan, William M. Higgins, James Coleman, Patrick Sullivan, Hickenbeck and Smith were called upon and responded with remarks appropriate to the occasion, after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the branch.

known the benefits of membership in this grand order, which had issued only one extra assessment in the entire fourteen years. He then read a communication from Supreme President Kelly, who suggested the formation of a central advisory board in Louisville. President Kelly appealed to the women, who could advertise the order and bring the membership up to 5,000 in this city. The suggestions met with hearty approval, and before the adjournment arrangements were made for a meeting next Wednesday night at the office of Attorney Newton G. Rogers, when the board will be organized.

Miss Mary Sheridan reported two applications and three candidates awaiting initiation. Reports coming to her showed new branches being instituted and the membership increasing everywhere, especially in the West. She well remembered when she could stand at St. Patrick's church and call all the members together. Now they were away up in the thousands and were scattered over fourteen States of the Union. She urged the formation of an advisory board that Louisville and Kentucky may continue in the lead.

Newton G. Rogers pointed to the monuments of Catholic fraternity and charity reared by the C. K. and L. of A. After some good advice and a practical business talk he congratulated the branch on its success. Dr. Peter Ganz was indeed glad to see the backbone and spirit exhibited by Supreme President Kelly and the active interest he is arousing to increase the membership. Dr. Ganz asked each individual to bring in one new member during the year. Members should better inform themselves about their order by holding quarterly general meetings and preparing themselves to become its agents.

Miss Rena Weisenberg aroused much enthusiasm and offered her services. Advisory boards in other cities, she said, were doing splendid work, and the same would result here if properly organized. Messrs. Thomas Keenan, William M. Higgins, James Coleman, Patrick Sullivan, Hickenbeck and Smith were called upon and responded with remarks appropriate to the occasion, after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the branch.

Not the least pleasing feature of the meeting was the presence of so many of the founders of the society, which they believe, in the words of Secretary Coleman, is the cheapest and safest fraternal insurance society in this country. It was indeed a happy and successful anniversary, and on every side the hope was expressed that the present might live to enjoy together many more such.

JOSEPH MURPHY.

Great Irish Actor to Appear at Masonic Theater Next Week.

The coming of Joseph Murphy to the Masonic Theater in "Kerry Gow" and "Shannon Rhue" next week will be hailed with delight by those who enjoy a wholesome Irish play by an actor who knows how to depict true Irish character. The performance of either "Kerry Gow" or "Shannon Rhue" will give the keenest pleasure to those who have been going to the modern plays and to the cheap vaudeville dubbed Irish. Joe Murphy is an actor of merit, else he could not have maintained his high place on the American stage during the past quarter of a century. He has been in Louisville before and never failed to draw big houses. He is a true blue Irishman, a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and other Irish societies and never fails to draw big houses every night in the week in cities where Irish live, and there are over 50,000 of them in Louisville. As Dan O'Hara in "Kerry Gow" Mr. Murphy is at his best. The company supporting him is made up of actors of Irish names and who speak with an Irish accent.

Of course Mr. Murphy will have large audiences every night during his appearance here. He is a favorite among the old-time theater-goers whether they be Irish or not. Those who have never witnessed the performance of "Kerry Gow" or "Shannon Rhue" should not miss going to the Masonic next week.

UNDER COVER.

Contractors have begun work on the roof of the new St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville and are now placing the timbers in position. It is hoped to have the handsome structure soon under cover and that work on the interior may be pushed during the winter months. The new edifice will cost $35,000, and when finished it will be the most beautiful in

GROWING

In Membership and Influence Are the Knights of Columbus.

Louisville Council Will Soon Have a Roster of 500.

Tomorrow Week Forty-Five New Candidates Will Be Instituted.

A POPULAR CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION

On tomorrow week Louisville Council of the Knights of Columbus will have a general meeting for the purpose of instituting about forty-five new members. Previous to the ceremonies the members of the council will attend the holy mass. When this new membership is added the council will have about 500 members. The steady growth in membership and influence of the Knights of Columbus in this city is a source of gratification to Catholics generally. For a new organization the Knights of Columbus has made wonderful strides in the West and South, particularly during the past two years. The Louisville membership includes some of the leading Catholic business and professional men. The members not only take a live interest in Catholic affairs, but in everything that tends to the betterment of society and the welfare of the city. Regular meetings of the council are held every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The election of officers takes place at the first meeting in December of each year. The annual dues are only $12, and membership is open to all Catholics, with but few restrictions. The present officers of Louisville Council are:

Grand Knight—Charles F. Taylor.
Deputy Grand Knight—Fred A. Bauer.
Chancellor—John A. Doyle.
Treasurer—Henry Paslick.
Financial Secretary and Recorder—J. J. Flynn.

Chaplain—Rev. Leo Greulich, of St. Anthony's church.

Lecturer—P. H. Callahan.

Advocate—Joseph E. Conkling.

Warden—John M. Mulloy.

Inside Guard—Elmer Watson.

Outside Guard—Thomas S. Evans.

Medical Examiner—Dr. W. B. Doherty.

Past Grand Knights—M. J. Winn, R. A. Watson, Charles J. O'Connor, P. M. O'Reilly.

State Deputy Supreme Knight—Robert A. Watson.

Past State Deputy—Chas. J. O'Connor.

The Board of Trustees is composed of Dr. John A. Ouchterlony, M. J. Duffy and Henry Thiemann.

Interest in the Knights of Columbus in the Far West is on the increase and new councils are now being instituted in many of the smaller cities. Denver Council, it is said, will in the near future begin the erection of a $50,000 structure for their own use. An excellent start has already been made, and the committee in charge feel certain that everything will work according to the plans arranged. And in Louisville the Knights, who number about 250, have purchased their own hall at a cost of $16,000 and have paid for the same.

The proposition to erect or purchase a building for the order in Louisville has been discussed, but thus far no definite action has been taken. If Louisville Council decides to have a building of its own it is safe to say it will be one worthy the order.

YOUNG FATHER BRADY

Receives a Hearty Welcome From People of St. Cecilia's Parish.

There was much rejoicing throughout St. Cecilia's parish last Sunday, when the Rev. Father A. F. P. Brady celebrated his first mass as assistant pastor of that flourishing congregation. The young priest, who was only recently ordained, is a nephew of the beloved rector, Rev. A. J. Brady. During his visits while studying for the priesthood he made many friends among the Catholics of the West End, especially the younger element, with whom he will become extremely popular. For some time past Father Brady was stationed at St. Vincent's in Union county, but on account of his ability and zeal it is thought Bishop McCloskey assigned him to the larger and more important field. He succeeds Rev. John Kalaher, who is highly pleased with the hearty and cordial reception given him by the people of his new charge.

SATOLLI COUNCIL.

The meeting of Satoli Council this week was presided over by President Grotty with his usual grace, and was more interesting than usual. The application of Ollie Gore was received and referred to the proper committee. The report of the Joint Committee was listened to with interest, and the Satoli representatives were assured of the co-operation of the council next week in making the reception to Supreme Presdent Fogarty a success. Arrangements were also completed for the banquet next Wednesday night. The report of the Executive Committee was read and showed the financial condition of Satoli Council to be steadily improving. A handsome Y. M. I. pin has been offered to the one securing the most new members between now and January 1, with the provision that at least five must be secured in order to compete for it. Members were selected to serve on the House Committee during the month of November, and James Perry was appointed custodian of the property of the council, in lieu of the Marshal, for whom an anxious inquiry is now being made. Perhaps certain young ladies might throw some light on that subject.

GRAND CHURCH BAZAR

For Thanksgiving Week With Drawings of Prizes Nightly.

The people of St. Frances of Rome church in Clifton have arranged a gala time for their friends for Thanksgiving week. With Father White at their head they will hold a grand bazar, opening Monday, November 21, and closing the following Saturday night, the proceeds of which will go toward paying for making Cavewood street and the sidewalk. Each night there will be entertaining features and a drawing for prizes, in which all ticket holders will participate. The list of prizes includes a handsome chiffonier, the gift of Councilman Al. Smith, a fine water filter, fifty bushels of coal, household article, music cabinet, fancy chair, dozen cabinet photos, large ornamental cake, five-dollar gold piece, Irish sovereign, twelve cabinet photos and one hundred nickels, donated by Owen Keiran. There will be a number of pretty booths and refreshment tables, where the ladies will have a bountiful supply of everything good to eat. The bazar will be held in the school hall and will be found the right place to spend both a pleasant and profitable evening. Crescent Hill cars stop at the hall door.

SILVER WEDDING

John Hoffman and Wife Will Celebrate the Happy Occasion.

John Hoffman and wife, popular and highly esteemed German Catholic residents of the East End, plighted their troth in the old St. Boniface church, this city, on November 25, 1879, and the long interval of a quarter of a century has been happily spent in Louisville. Now with the evening of their days approaching they face the great beyond fearlessly and confident of that reward sure to be the portion of those whose lives have been full of well doing. It is therefore fitting that so joyful an event should be duly celebrated, and the occasion will indeed be a most happy one. On the morning of November 25 the worthy couple, surrounded by their many devoted friends and relatives, will participate in the holy mass to be offered up for their special benefit at the new St. Boniface church by the Rev. Father Guido, O. S. F., who tomorrow will himself celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the holy priesthood. For each of the three there are only good wishes and the hope that they may enjoy a duplicate of the past twenty-five years. Mr. Hoffman and Father Guido are cousins.

PRAY FOR THE DEAD.

Holy and Wholesome Thought Carried Out by Thousands of Catholics Sunday.

On last Sunday thousands of persons visited the Catholic cemeteries to pray for the souls of the departed. Those who could not go on All Souls' day, November 2, performed the duty on the Sunday following. On account of the propitious weather the throngs at the cemeteries last Sunday were larger than usual.

At St. Michael's cemetery every year on the Sunday following All Souls' there are large crowds, but the throng last Sunday was a record breaker, more than 5,000 people assembling there and most of them assisted at the office of the dead, which was recited by Rev. Father Guido Stallo, of St. Boniface church. Previous to reciting the prayers a procession was formed and marched to the great cross in the center of the cemetery and all knelt in prayer.

The Scripture says it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead. This injunction is kept in mind by those who have loved ones buried in our Catholic cemeteries, and from year to year the crowds increase. The custom is a beautiful one and ought to be observed generally by Catholics.

GOES TO ST. JOHN'S.

The people of St. John's parish were much pleased this week when they learned that the Rev. George Cone had been appointed assistant priest to the Very Rev. Father Bax. Father Cone is one of the younger priests in this diocese, and was for a while stationed at St. Patrick's. He is an earnest worker, an able speaker, and has been popular with the masses of the people. Our friends of St. John's have reason to congratulate themselves and thank the Bishop for his appointment.

CATHOLIC

College For Women to Be Opened in New York State.

To Be Conducted By the Ursuline Nuns at New Rochelle.

Will Be Founded on Liberal Basis, Non-Catholics to Be Admitted.

ALSO A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

The chartering of the College of St. Angela, the first and only Catholic college for women in New York State, was an event of great importance to the teachers of Greater New York. This college, which is situated in New Rochelle, is the result of the fruitful labors of the Ursuline nuns. Their seminary in New Rochelle has long been noted for the excellence of its instruction, says the New York Sun.

The college is founded on a liberal basis. While its primary object is to provide collegiate training for Catholic girls, those of other denominations are also welcomed. An important part of the policy of the college will be the offering to teachers of an opportunity to obtain a degree without sacrificing their profession. In this it follows Adelphi College in Brooklyn. In pursuance of this policy a two hour course will be given this winter in Manhattan at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Madison avenue.

The subject of the course will be "Contemporary Educational Problems." It will be given on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The hour on Tuesday will be devoted to a consideration of the history and principles of education. On Thursday evenings there will be a series of thirty lectures, delivered by the educational leaders of this city and its vicinity. They will discuss the live educational problems of the day. Every effort will be made to have these lectures given by men well known in the educational world. The Presidents of neighboring colleges, the professors of education in neighboring institutions, the highest supervisory officials in the city public school system, the principals of the city High Schools and men and women of equal reputation will be among the lecturers.

It is expected that Archbishop Farley will deliver the opening address and that Monsignor Lavelle, the distinguished ex-President of the Catholic summer school, will be the first lecturer. The course will be a three-fold value to the members of the teaching profession. In the first place it will be a culture course for teachers and will enable them to enjoy the rare opportunity of hearing the ablest educational men in this part of the country. In the second place it will count toward an A. B. degree at the College of St. Angela. In the third place it will be possible for teachers, by complying with certain examination requirements, to count it toward eligibility for candidacy for license No. 1 and for the head of department and principal's licenses. During the course many helpful suggestions will be given of value to candidates for places in city schools.

During successive years the city courses will be so planned that any teacher will be able to earn a degree without making the sacrifice necessitated by leaving her profession. The College of St. Angela is planning to do a great and noble work, both for its students and for members of the teaching profession. Just as soon as it is feasible the college will become a member of the Society College Entrance Board of the Middle States and Maryland. Every precaution will be taken to guard the value of its degree and to have the college maintain the standing of its predecessor, the Ursuline Seminary.

FEAST OF MUSIC.

The music loving people of Louisville will be delightfully entertained at the Masonic Theater on Sunday night, November 20, when the first grand concert of the Eichhorn-Kollros military band, mixed chorus and orchestra will be given. The programme is an artistic and meritorious one and equals any ever presented here. Messrs. Eichhorn and Kollros deserve encouragement in their effort to give Louisville a standard band and orchestra. The soloists, will be Mrs. Mamie Becker, Mrs. Marguerite Swain, Charles Leizler and Constantine Leber.

CAN TRUST HIM.

Councilman Lawrence Ford, of Jeffersonville, left Thursday for Pittsburgh to be present at the meetings of the Grand Committees of the several divisions of the Pennsylvania lines and the road officials, which will last all of next week. Larry has the confidence and respect of the men and their interests are safe in his hands.

MISSION AT ST. PATRICK'S.

At the high mass tomorrow morning at St. Patrick's a mission will open with the people of that congregation and continue throughout the week. The morning and evening services will be held on week days, with sermon and benediction at the latter.